

Accident Death Toll Runs High On Thanksgiving

(By The Associated Press)

The nation's death toll in violent accidents over the Thanksgiving day holiday was one of the highest in several years.

There were at least 161 violent deaths from 6 p. m. (local time) Wednesday to midnight Thursday. These included 103 traffic fatalities. Fifty-eight persons died in miscellaneous accidents, including fires, plane crashes, shootings, falls and hunting. Also included were 14 persons killed in Alabama tornadoes.

This year's Thanksgiving violent deaths compared to 114 over the same period last year; 128 in 1947, and 83 in 1946. The totals on Thanksgiving day holidays during the war years also were below this year's mark.

This year's Thanksgiving day traffic deaths far exceeded last year's toll of 86. The National Safety Council's records show an average of 82 persons killed every 24 hours in traffic accidents during the first nine months of 1949. However, the figures for the nine months cover deaths occurring as long as months after the accident in which the victims were injured.

Among the violent deaths were a 19-year-old mother and her three young children who perished in a fire that destroyed their log cabin near Rockville, Ind. In Elizabeth, N. J., a father died in attempting to aid his eight children when fire broke out in their home.

Six violent deaths marked Michigan's stormy Thanksgiving Day holiday period.

Five persons were killed in automobile traffic.

It was uncertain, however, how much of a role the snowstorm played in the highway fatalities.

Two of the traffic victims were elderly men, both septogenarians.

Robert S. Finks, 70, of near Flint, was killed Thanksgiving afternoon when pushing his stalled car on Corunna Road southwest of the city.

Police said Finks was hit by a gasoline truck-trailer which jackknifed as the driver, Clyde L. Scowden of Flint, tried to avoid striking the car. Scowden was not held.

After investigation, state police at the Rockford Post reported to attribute the death of 74-year-old John H. Miller of Ravenna to the storm.

Miller, driving alone, lost control of his car five miles west of Rockford and ran into a tree. Officers said the wheel tracks did not indicate a skid was responsible.

The state's other victims included nine-year-old Melvin Werner, who suffocated in his Livonia township home from furnace fumes and Mrs. Edwin Petras, 39, of Detroit, and Chester F. Stewart, 34, of Romulus, both killed in grade crossing crashes.

Truck Driver Quizzed Again In Killing Of Saginaw Mother Of 9

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 25. (AP)—State police said Leland Werth, 46, a truck driver, would be taken to East Lansing again today for another die detector test in the slaying of Mrs. Pearl Walters, 49.

Werth was arrested shortly after the battered body of the mother of nine children was found last Tuesday. An earlier lie test was termed "inconclusive" by state police.

Werth told officers he went on a round of taverns with Mrs. Walters shortly before the slaying. He said, however, that she disappeared from his car about 2 a. m. and he did not see her afterwards.

Sheriff William A. Munroe said there appeared to be some "discrepancies" in Werth's story. The truck driver steadfastly denied any connection with the death.

President Seeking Atomic Chief To Replace Lilienthal

Washington, Nov. 25. (AP)—President Truman, reportedly still seeking a successor to David E. Lilienthal as the nation's atomic chief, was urged by lawmakers today to choose no one but a top-notch executive.

A high official of the atomic energy commission said he understood that Mr. Truman had not yet picked a new AEC chairman to replace Lilienthal, whose resignation was announced Wednesday.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) and Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.)—both members of the senate-house atomic energy committee—called on the president to exercise careful judgment in making the choice for one of the most important jobs in the world.

Johnson has been highly critical of many of Lilienthal's policies in the past; Kilday has been a strong defender of the controversial atomic official.

In accepting Lilienthal's resignation with "reluctance and the utmost regret," Mr. Truman expressed confidence that his atomic lieutenant would stay on if really needed beyond the December 31 date on which he now plans to quit.

Despite this indication that the president might not be in a hurry to find a successor, there was speculation that Mr. Truman may act swiftly in order to give the new man plenty of time to familiarize himself with the complex and secrecy-cloaked operation before Lilienthal steps out.

DAVID E. LILIENTHAL

Johnson coupled his call for a top executive for the $17,500-a-year job with a barbed, indirect thrust at Lilienthal—a public advocate of less secrecy in the atomic operation.

"I hope the president fills this long anticipated vacancy with a hard driving executive who will be more interested in pushing the development of atomic energy than in propaganda," Johnson told a reporter. He would not elaborate.

Swift Action May Prevent Coal Walkout

New Peace Dickers Set For Monday

By HAROLD W. WARD

Washington, Nov. 25. (AP)—Government officials and mine owners looked today for new coal peace talks to be announced by Monday.

They said they were expecting swift action by United Mine Workers president John L. Lewis, who appears threatened with a possible Taft-Hartley Act injunction if his 380,000 soft coal miners east of the Mississippi walk off the job December 1.

The miners, after a 52-day strike, are at work now during a three-week truce called by Lewis November 9. The truce ends November 30, and there have been reports that President Truman is prepared to halt a new walkout by using his Taft-Hartley injunction power.

Officials predicted Lewis would try to forestall that by making a new bid for a contract with the operators.

The miners are working under an indefinite extension of the old contract which expired last June 30.

The mine owners were due to decide today or tomorrow whether to meet Lewis in New York or elsewhere by early next week.

Lewis has called his 200-man policy committee to New York on Monday. The committee last met early this month in Chicago, when it appeared Lewis might be able to induce some leading Illinois

Timid Moves In Angus Ward Case Blasted

America Loses Face With Mukden Reds

Washington, Nov. 25. (AP)—A Republican blast at the state department's handling of the Angus Ward case brought from two Democrats today a reply that the department should be praised rather than criticized.

Reps. Price (D-Ill.) and Mansfield (D-Mont.) told reporters the important thing was that the department had got word, the U. S. Consul General at Mukden, released from a Chinese Communist jail.

They said Ward still would be in jail and the United States probably would be in a war if the department had followed a policy keyed to the thinking represented by the G. O. P. attack.

Incident Humiliating

Five Republicans—all members of the House Foreign Affairs committee—got out a statement yesterday accusing the department of a "spineless performance" in the Ward case. They demanded the immediate firing of officials "high and low" responsible for U. S. Chinese policy.

They were particularly critical of efforts to bring world pressure on the Communists to release Ward.

The five Republicans called the whole incident "one of the most humiliating chapters in American diplomatic history." They said "the loss of face by the United States is beyond calculation."

One of the House members, Rep. Judd of Minnesota, told a reporter the United States should have tried "military action" in the Ward case instead of "ignominiously sneaking off the battlefield."

Besides Judd, the statement was signed by Reps. Chipfield of Illinois, Wors of Ohio, Lawrence H. Smith of Wisconsin, and Jackson of California.

It bristled with phrases like "unbelievable bungling" and "mis-handling" and said the department's "failure to take firm action" is a "by-product of the incredibly botched China policy which our government has pursued for the last four years."

The statement reserved particular criticism for Secretary of

Death Takes Former Oklahoma Governor

Oklahoma City, Nov. 25. (AP)—Former Oklahoma Governor J. C. (Jack) Walton died here early today.

He had been in failing health in recent years after a tempestuous political career which saw him ousted from his gubernatorial post during a bitter Ku Klux Klan fight.

Walton, 68, was impeached and ousted in 1923 but the next year entered the senatorial campaign and won the Democratic nomination. However, he was beaten in the general election by W. B. Pine, Okmulgee Republican.

Holy Sepulchre Church Saved

Blaze In Jerusalem Does Little Damage

Jerusalem, Nov. 25. (AP)—A fire in the Christian-venetian church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem's old city died down today after causing little damage.

The reassuring report was brought by foreign diplomats who visited the fire scene. They said on their return through Arab lines that the blaze only partly damaged the leaden main dome and cupola, and a layer of felt and tar underneath the dome.

The flames, they added, did not damage the reinforced concrete inner layer of the dome or heavy scaffolding inside the church supporting the rotunda itself.

Many Christians believe the church covers the spot where the sepulchre was located. The body of Christ was taken to the sepulchre after the crucifixion. Some authorities, however, question the authenticity of the site.

The fire broke out Wednesday night. Handicapped by lack of modern fire-fighting equipment, Arabs, Moslems and Christians joined in battling the flames. Monks of five denominations moved all the treasures of the shrine to safety. They included sacred images and rich fixtures.

Hashemite Jordan police said they had detained for questioning four men who had been working on the wooden image in the dome and making other building repairs at the time of the fire.

French General Strike Is Fiasco

Paris, Nov. 25. (AP)—France's two biggest labor union's called a 24-hour general strike today but the demonstration for higher wages failed to shut down French economic life.

Transportation was disrupted. Mines and most big industries were closed. But reports from throughout the country showed that large groups of workers insisted on staying on the job. Hundreds of thousands of Frenchmen walked or rode bicycles in a determined effort to get to work.

Effects of the strike on normal life were not very noticeable. Socialist Cabinet Minister Eugene Thomas, who heads the post office called the strike a "fiasco."

Gambler Fitzgerald Reported On Mend After Ambush Attack

Reno, Nev., Nov. 25. (AP)—Big-time gambler Lincoln Fitzgerald apparently is on the mend. Fitzgerald, who was shot down from ambush last Friday night, ate a turkey dinner yesterday, his first solid food.

Doctors at first held little hope of recovery for the 37-year-old gambler. He received a shotgun blast in his spine, liver and lung.

Police, meantime, still were without clues in the search for Fitzgerald's assailant.

Holiday Tornadoes Kill 14, Injure 44 In East Alabama

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 25. (AP)—Thanksgiving day tornadoes roared down at four points in East Alabama yesterday and killed 14 persons. Forty-four persons were injured.

The vicious, out-of-season storms left several other persons missing and destroyed more than a score of buildings as they leaped across three counties about dusk.

An entire family of 10 Negroes was wiped out near Hackneyville in Tallapoosa county, 60 miles southeast of Birmingham. The mammoth wind picked up their weatherbeaten little home and hurled it 300 yards across the road into another house.

The second house was occupied by another large family of Negroes, but none was reported hurt. Both houses were demolished—witnesses said they appeared to explode after the smashing impact.

Near Oneonta, in Blount county, two members of a white family were killed at the Easley community. The same twister hopped a small mountain and struck again on the northern outskirts of Oneonta, where 34 persons were hurt. Property damage was heavy.

Gov. James E. Folsom called on National Guardsmen at Oneonta to aid in the search for the missing. Blood plasma, hospital supplies and nurses were sent to the Oneonta area by highway patrolmen.

Bonn Approves Eased Controls

Parliament In Uproar Over Ruhr Issue

By The Associated Press

Over bitter Socialist opposition the West German parliament today approved a new Allied-German agreement which relaxes conquerors' controls over the defeated nation.

The Socialists opposed the agreement, which recognizes international control of the industrial Ruhr. The Germans previously had said they would boycott international authority over this key industrial area.

All-night debate on this issue had parliament in an uproar. Socialist leader Kurt Schumacher taunted Chancellor Konrad Adenauer for signing the agreement. He called him the "Chancellor of the Allies."

The controversial issue apparently has split West Germany down the middle on straight right-left party lines. For hot words were exchanged between the executive officials. Schumacher was barred from the assembly's next 20 sessions.

Maynor said damage in Easley was "widespread" and that many persons there were injured. Mrs. Gus Tidwell and her sister-in-law Miss Jennie Tidwell died in their storm-crushed home.

Jesse McCullough, an Easley resident, related that he was picked up by the wind and carried across three acres of land, finally landing in a tree top.

Evidence of the wind's might was shown when a school bus standing in front of Eugene Gibson's house was blown completely over the building, landing in the back yard.

Newsman reported widespread damage to timber over a 20-mile swath.

Panama Police Pick President

New Choice Is Third In Five Days

Panama, Panama, Nov. 25. (AP)—Arnulfo Arias, a fiery 49-year-old surgeon, early today became Panama's third president in six days by proclamation of Congress.

The Congressional approval apparently put the stamp of legality on the latest coup by Panama's president-making police chief, Col. Jose Remon.

Remon, who forced the ouster of President Daniel Chanas, Jr., on Sunday, late last night defied a ruling of the supreme court and announced that Arias was the new president. A few minutes before, the court had ruled Chanas was still the constitutional president of this central American country.

The congressional endorsement of Arias at 2:08 a. m. (EST) this morning ended a week of turmoil over the presidency which produced riots and tangled political situations unusual even for Latin America where revolutions are not uncommon.

Strangely enough, it was Remon who ousted Arias in 1941 after he had served as the Republic's president for a year. Until yesterday they were bitter political enemies.

Arias is an ardent Nationalist and in his past hectic career often attacked U. S. influence in this country bisected by the Panama Canal.

Sisters Fall Off 100-Foot Bridge

Exhausted Girl Found Beside Dead Body

Philadelphia, Nov. 25. (AP)—A twelve-year-old girl in a state of near exhaustion was found on Thanksgiving day beside the dead body of her younger sister under a 100-foot high trestle.

The girls apparently had fallen from the railroad bridge. In a moment of consciousness the injured girl said her sister fell "through the trestle. I heard her scream and ran to help her and I fell through too."

Their discovery by five boys playing on the brink of the ravine the trestle bridges ended an all-night search for the girls. They were last seen Wednesday afternoon after they were dismissed from school.

The dead girl was 11-year-old Elsie Jeanne Henry. Her sister is named Jennie Betty. They were third and fourth grade pupils, the daughters of James F. Henry of nearby Rutledge.

The Henrys reported the children missing at seven p. m. Wednesday. By morning a widespread search for them had developed. Just before noon three sons of a prominent Chester lawyer, J. H. W. Hinkson, with two playmates, heard feeble moans from the ravine.

The boys scattered and ran for help. One summoned Hinkson's gardener, George Rinehart. The banks of the gulch are so steep that ropes had to be used to help carrying out Betty and her dead sister.

Betty is in a serious condition at Chester, suffering from shock, 17 hours of exposure, and internal bleeding. An examination showed no outward marks on her sister's body but indicated death may have been caused by bleeding into a lung.

Frisco Judge Asked To Reverse Sentence On Bridges' Attorney

San Francisco, Nov. 25. (AP)—The Civil Rights Congress wants a federal judge to reverse his sentence of Harry Bridges' attorney to six months in jail for contempt of court.

"Your ruling is a violation of the guarantee of a fair trial as embodied in the constitution," the San Francisco chapter of the Congress wrote to Federal Judge George B. Harris.

It characterized the sentence of Vincent Hallinan, effective at the end of Bridges' current perjury trial as setting "a dangerous precedent leading to the intimidation of attorneys who vigorously defend their clients."

The trial of Bridges resumes Monday after a Thanksgiving recess. He and two associates are charged with conspiracy to commit perjury in swearing during naturalization proceedings, the CIO Longshore leader was not a Communist.

New Milk Test Service Begun

Microscopic Tests Aid Producers

Direct microscopic tests on all milk collected from producers who sell their milk to bottling plants in Delta county has been started by the state health department laboratory at Powers, it was announced today by Dr. William C. Harrison, director of the Delta-Menominee health district.

The standard plate count was previously used in testing milk. While that test gave the total number of bacteria found, it did not indicate the various bacteria types, Dr. Harrison said.

Direct microscopic examination of milk samples is valuable in determining the presence or absence of streptococci mastitis in the cow, and is also valuable in determining the number of bacteria in milk.

The types of bacteria in high count milk indicate the sources of contamination and thus aid the inspector and the producer in detecting quickly the sources of trouble so that it can be corrected.

The new method of testing offers a fast, economical, and efficient means to judge operating methods on the farm, Dr. Harrison explained. Local milk plant operators have expressed a desire for this type of service, which has proved valuable elsewhere in obtaining a high quality milk for pasteurization.

Delta county has seven bottling plants, where approximately 3,600 quarts of milk and cream are bottled daily. This milk is supplied by 90 producers.

Samples of milk from each producer are collected at least once each month and more often when indicated by William Hendrickson, health department sanitarian. Samples of pasteurized milk and cream are also picked up at least once a month by the sanitarian for testing.

Following the direct microscopic test reports, all producers will be notified of their bacterial counts. Those having a high-count milk will be advised as to the most probable cause of the trouble. After a reasonable time has been allowed for making corrections, a re-check will be made.

Louis Breitenbach Attends Ministry Meeting In Ohio

Louis Breitenbach of 1407 Stephenson avenue, student of Michigan State college at East Lansing, was among 40 prospective seminarians who attended the third annual conference on the ministry at Bexley hall, the Divinity school of Kenyon college, at Gambier, Ohio, Nov. 18-19-20.

Louis is a member of St. Stephen Episcopal church. Eight dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal church were represented.

The conference was held to offer young men in business, college, and in rare cases, in high schools, an opportunity to study the ministry objectively. It was not intended primarily for those who are seeking to determine their vocation.

The young men heard Rev. Dr. Francis J. Moore, rector of the Church of the Advent in Cincinnati, speak on his 40 years in the ministry, four priests recently returned from China, Cuba, India and Japan discuss overseas ministries, and several other speakers.

Ira W. Smith Dies Thursday

Funeral Will Be Held Saturday

Ira Wilder Smith, 63, 609 South Ninth street, proprietor of the I. W. Smith Poster Service, died at 8:45 Thursday night in St. Francis hospital. He had been a patient one day.

Mr. Smith was born Aug. 11, 1886 in Wilmington, Ill., and moved to Escanaba in 1926, from Fort Madison, Iowa. Carlson To Head U. Of Vermont

Native Of Ironwood. Quits Delaware U.

Ironwood, Mich.—Dr. William S. Carlson, a native of Ironwood and a graduate of the University of Michigan, who now is president of the University of Delaware at Newark, Del., today announced his resignation, effective next April, to become president of the University of Vermont.

He said that "opportunity for professional advancement" offered in his new position had overcome his reluctance to leave the Delaware post he had occupied since July 1, 1946.

"I feel that we have started much that is worthwhile at the post-war University of Delaware, while carrying on the University's best traditions," Dr. Carlson said. "I regret that I will not be here, save in spirit, to aid in the completion of many of these programs."

At Vermont, Dr. Carlson will be the head of a university with a student body of about 3,200 and a faculty of some 300, about 50 per cent larger in each case than the University of Delaware.

Founded in 1791, Vermont is the oldest state university. It includes a college of medicine, the state agricultural college, and colleges

Mail Early, Avoid Rush At Christmas, Postmaster Urges

Postmaster Regina W. Cleary today issued her annual appeal for early mailing of Christmas greeting cards and gift packages.

The postmaster expects the greatest flood of Yuletide mail in local history. She predicted it would exceed "by a considerable margin" the record-breaking 1948 holiday season, when 424,297 pieces of mail were cancelled.

Christmas packages for distant States should be mailed by December 5. All Yuletide parcel post should be on its way by Dec. 10.

Christmas cards to those in other States should be despatched by Dec. 15. Greetings for local delivery should click through the stamp cancellation machines at least a week before Christmas.

Preparations to handle this Yuletide rush have already begun. The post office is training extra mail clerks and carriers, setting up new sorting tables, hauling out reserve mail sacks, and overhauling delivery trucks. Thousands of bright new postage stamps are on hand, and the post office pens are all getting new points.

To keep Christmas mail on schedule:

1. Stop at the post office next week to purchase the extra stamps you're going to need, thus avoiding last-minute crowds. When buying stamps for Christmas cards, bear in mind the desirability of sending the cards as first class mail; also the fact that the rate for unsealed cards has been increased from 1 1/2c to 2c each.

2. Check and revise your Christmas card address list this week-end. Purchase your Christmas cards early and address and stamp them at once. Then stack them in a convenient place for mailing at the proper time.

3. Lay in adequate supplies of heavy cardboard, sturdy outer paper, strong cord, and printed Fourth Class labels for wrapping parcel post. Packages are limited to 70 pounds in weight, and must not measure more than 100 inches in length and girth combined. Repeat the address inside the outer wrappings, in case they are damaged in transit.

If you worry about the recipient pecking "Do Not Open Until Christmas" stickers on packages and the backs of greeting card envelopes.

Judge Jackson Dismisses Suit

Stambaugh Doctor Sued By Caretaker

Crystal Falls—Judge Glenn W. Jackson ruled "no cause for action" in circuit court in the chancery action brought by Oliver Briha, 70, against Dr. W. J. Kofmehl, of Stambaugh, in which he sought wages totalling $3,000 for being caretaker over a period of nine years at the latter's camp in Stambaugh township. The case was dismissed.

After the plaintiff had completed his testimony, Fred F. Murphy, defense attorney, moved for a directed verdict, claiming Briha had not proved his case. The court then took the motion under advisement.

Briha claimed while on the stand that he was to get $1 a day for taking care of the camp. Dr. Kofmehl testified that he had no contract, written or verbal, with Briha, and that Briha, in 1940, was happy to have a camp at which he could stay.

Dr. Kofmehl also testified that he brought food and supplies regularly to Briha and often furnished him clothes. He also said that he gave Briha a radio and other things to make his stay at the camp pleasant. The defendant said that the lodger at no time talked to him about paying him $1 a day, but that he did give him cash two times. Briha also was paid for cutting mine lagging at the Kofmehl camp.

Joyce Nichol Dies In Crash

Escanaba Girl Is Traffic Victim

Miss Joyce Nichol, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. Nichol, 1415 Ninth avenue south, was fatally injured early Thursday morning in a traffic accident near Port Washington, Wis., while Miss Nichol was on her way home for Thanksgiving Day.

A Whitefish Bay (Wis.) high school secretary since last July, Miss Nichol and a friend, Fred Sommer Jr., 24, of Milwaukee, left there early yesterday morning to drive to Escanaba.

Joyce Nichol

The car driven by Sommers skidded on roads glazed with snow and ice into the path of a large trailer-truck loaded with evergreens. The Sommer car was knocked across Highway 57, one mile south of Saukville in Ozaukee county.

Sommer was hospitalized with shock at Port Washington. He was not seriously injured.

The truck was driven by Ralph Erickson, 34, of Cornell, who was uninjured. His brother, Edgar Erickson, 47, of Bark River, a passenger in the truck, was hospitalized with head, back and shoulder injuries. The truck overturned in a ditch.

Kathleen Joyce Nichol was born in Milwaukee October 7, 1929. She was graduated from Escanaba high school in 1947, a scholarship student, and she entered Milwaukee Business Institute, completing her course last June.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian church, was a Past Honored Queen of Job's Daughters, Escanaba Bethel, and also a member of the National Honor society.

Surviving are her parents, three brothers and three sisters, Howard who is in the United States Navy, Robert and Gerald, at home; Mrs. Richard Latter of Fairfield, Ia., and Patricia and Geraldine at home; and her grandmother, Mrs. Dora Nichol of Milwaukee.

The body is at the Anderson funeral home where services will be conducted by Rev. James H. Bell Monday afternoon at 3:30. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning Sunday.

University Of Detroit Plans $23,000 Shrine To Lady Of Fatima

Detroit—A memorial shrine valued at $23,000 is to be erected on the University of Detroit campus as a living tribute to Our Lady of Fatima and also as a memorial to the 138 service men and women who died during the last war. It will be completely financed by the students.

The idea was originated by two graduate students of the University who built the memorial design and model as a part of their senior thesis while in the College of Engineering last year. They are Charles Parise and Richard Leone, the shrine architects.

The shrine is to be composed of a 16-foot statue of the Blessed Virgin, Our Lady of Fatima. There will be three smaller statues of the Portuguese children to whom Our Lady appeared and made her promises and predictions in 1917. They will face Our Lady. A pool, symbolic of the miraculous well that sprang up at the last apparition, is to be beneath the statues. Off on the side there will be an altar with a canopy over it. An electric organ will be under the altar to be used in accompanying outdoor masses for the students and also to play hymns during the day while they are praying and meditating.

Statues of the children and of Our Lady of Fatima will be de-

BEWARE THE WHITE LINE—You can hypnotize yourself into an accident by watching the white center line too closely, says Carol Lane of New York, travel expert for the Shell Oil Co. Escanaba Hunter Saved By Mechanical Kidney

A 55-year-old Escanaba hunter was snatched from death at Columbia hospital in Milwaukee this week by a mechanical kidney which washed poisons from his blood stream.

Hospital authorities and doctors have not divulged the name of the patient. He was reported to be "from Grand Rapids, and became acutely ill while hunting near Escanaba." He was brought to Milwaukee a week ago Wednesday, and submitted to treatment by the mechanical kidney Monday of this week.

The hunter was suffering from acute allergic reaction. His kidneys have stopped functioning and for six days uremic poisons, normally removed by the kidneys, piled up in his blood stream. Doctors estimated he could live five days.

His kidneys are now functioning normally and his condition is greatly improved. Columbia hospital authorities told the Escanaba Daily Press in a telephone conversation this morning.

Blood "Rinsed"
After carefully testing the new mechanical kidney, the apparatus was wheeled into his room Monday night. A team of doctors, some specially trained in Boston, where the first mechanical kidney was used at the Harvard medical school, put the machine to work.

A plastic tube, made of the same membranous material as skinless weiners, was attached to an artery in the hunter's arm. Twenty-five per cent of his blood supply, the amount normally in the kidneys, was allowed to flow into plastic tubing which revolved on a drum, portions of which were in a solution of chemicals. After the blood impurities had left the tube, through osmosis or seepage through the membrane, the blood was returned to the patient's body, through a tube attached to a vein in his other arm.

While the patient's blood was being "rinsed," a pint of matched blood, from the blood bank, was fed into the tubes. This helped cushion shock. Periodically during the three hour treatment, the patient's blood was sampled and checked in the hospital laboratory.

Invented in Holland
Each time the blood flowed from the mechanical kidney, about four feet long, back into the patient's body, less and less uremic poisons were found.

Impurities taken from his blood stream are now being analysed in laboratories, to learn more about kidney diseases.

Knowledge of the design of the machine was brought to this country by Dr. Francis D. Murphy, head of the medical department of the Marquette university.

Funeral services for Ferris Willette were held at St. Joseph's church Thursday morning. Father Stephen, O. F. M., officiating, and burial was made in Holy Cross cemetery.

Thallbearers were William and Theodore Godfrey, Wally and James Belangie, and Harold and Thomas Willette.

Mrs. Dorothy McCarthy was soloist of St. Joseph's church. Mrs. Elmer Bonifas sang "Pie Jesu" at the offertory and Mrs. Eldridge Baker sang "Jesu Salvator Mundi" at the close of the service.

Those attending the rites included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Willette, Green Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Willette, John and Julius Willette, Mrs. Mary Barish and Theresa Willette, Suamico, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thompson, Adrian, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Belangie and Bernice, Gladstone.

With The Deer Hunters

Dwane Hansen, 512 South 12th filled his license while hunting at his camp in the Stevens Lake area. His buck was a seven pointer and weighed 175 pounds.

Gerome Stannard, Onabay Cabins, brought down an 8-point buck weighing 150 pounds at Ford River.

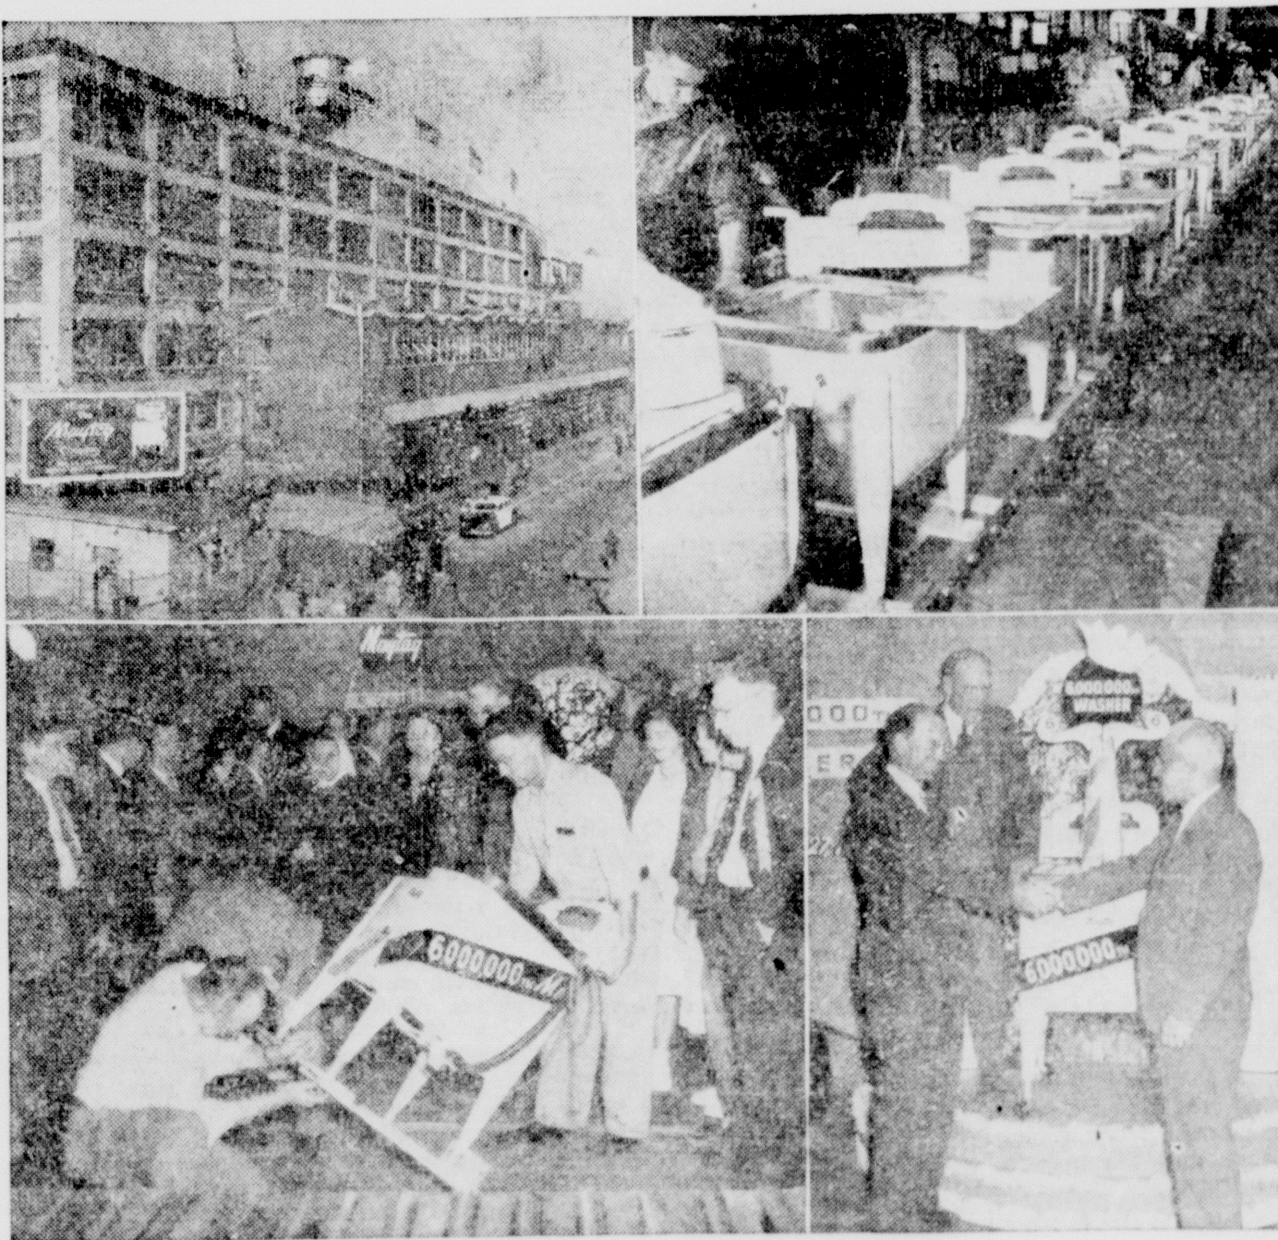

One hundred per cent successful were the hunters at the Paul Richter camp near Kates in Marquette county. In the party were Richter, who bagged a 155-pound seven-point buck; Anton Jensen of Escanaba, officer in charge of the Minneapolis Shovel light station, whose buck weighed 140 pounds and was a six-pointer; and Earl Iverson of Pine Ridge, who filled his license with a six-point 145-pound buck.

Hunting out of the D. T. Lawrence camp near LaBranche, three Marengo, Ill., hunters each got bucks this season. They are Roscoe Glenn, Howard Mayer and Dr. A. Bealer, who returned Wednesday to their homes.

6,000,000th Maytag Washer Sets New Industry Record

In the presence of a large crowd of spectators—amid the din of aerial bombs, fire sirens, factory whistles, bells and workers' cheers—the 6,000,000th Maytag washer recently rolled off the assembly line at Newton, Iowa, setting a new world record for washer production. Maytag Plant No. 1, where the historic event occurred, was gaily decorated for the occasion. Open house for residents of central Iowa was sponsored by the company's management club. Ten thousand visitors toured the production lines and inspected historical, educational and product exhibits, enjoyed refreshments and carried away souvenir booklets and pocket pieces.

Top pictures show the front of Maytag Plant No. 1 on 6,000,000th washer day and the final assembly lines down which machines roll at the rate of more than 200 an hour. Bottom photos show onlookers watching the 6,000,000th Maytag—a Model E conventional washer—coming off the inspection line, and President Fred Maytag congratulating L. C. McNally (right), manager of manufacturing, on the achievement as N. E. Molleek, production superintendent, looks on.

The 6,000,000th Maytag was a square aluminum tub Maytag Master with pump attachment. In addition to this and two other conventional models, Maytag also manufactures a new automatic washer in an ultra-modern factory recently completed at Newton. The company's line of appliances also includes automatic electric irons, gas ranges and home freezers.

Community Fund Lagging In County

BARRING some unexpected four-figure contributions, the Delta County Community Fund will not make its quota this year. It still is uncertain whether the amount of money collected in the county will enable the six participating agencies to get by on a minimum program. The goal was $17,500 and it will take a miracle to reach it upon the basis of returns thus far.

The best guess now is that when all pledges are in, the total will be in the neighborhood of $14,000, perhaps even a little less.

The Community Fund missed its quota of $18,500 last year, too, but by a smaller margin than is likely this year. Both quotas included an unallocated contingency fund. There were no funds available for contingency purposes last year and there surely will not be any this year.

It cannot be said with complete accuracy that the failure of the Community Fund to reach its quotas the past two years means an end to the one-drive campaign for finances for the various agencies now served by the Community Fund. It does mean, however, that the program is in jeopardy and that unless the minimum needs of the individual agencies are fulfilled, the county must anticipate an eventual return to the multiplicity of fund-raising drives that preceded the Community Fund.

Why are the quotas not being met? Well, one reason is that too many individuals who normally would contribute one dollar for the Boy Scouts or the Girl Scouts or the Campfire Girls separately are still contributing only one dollar for all these agencies combined, plus the Salvation Army, the Michigan Children's Aid and the Cod Liver Oil Fund.

Too many individuals refuse to contribute according to their ability to do so.

Byrnes Talks About Government Spending

WHEN a Republican bigwig takes a jab at federal government extravagance, the warning generally makes little impression upon the public. It is regarded as partisan politics. But when a Democratic bigwig, one as influential as James F. Byrnes, lashes out at federal extravagance, the public should realize that something is wrong with our affairs in Washington.

Byrnes spoke out against federal spending policies of the Truman administration in an address at Biloxi, Mississippi, this week. In that address, he said that the real trouble of the nation today is debt and taxes and that we cannot cure it by more debt and more taxes.

The federal deficit this year will probably exceed five billion dollars. The number of civilian government employees is now more than 2,000,000, costing more than $6,500,000,000 annually and we have more civilian employees in our defense departments today than there were even during the war when there were nearly 13 million men under arms.

Byrnes pointed out that today's tax schedules are a tremendous burden upon everyone, particularly the "little fellow" who must work 47 days a year to earn the money to pay just his federal tax. This is in addition to his state and local taxes.

Federal government economy is more than a desirable objective. It is an essential one. Surely if we cannot maintain a balanced budget in times like these, when there is a relatively high period of prosperity and are employing nearly 60 million people, it is time for a remodeling of our governmental policies.

A Natural Death

THE big give-away shows are tumbling toward the bottom of the radio heap in popularity. One has hit 60th in its Hooper-rating, another 104th.

If this slide became permanent, the FCC's ban on give-aways may prove purely academic. Right now the networks are waiting to get court tests of the ruling under way, but the programs may well have died a natural death before a decision comes.

All we can say is, it couldn't have happened to a more deserving lot of programs.

Good Sportsmanship At Cage Opener

THE St. Joseph and Escanaba high school basketball teams played to a near capacity crowd Tuesday night. The rivalry was keen and the game was hard fought. The Trojans came through with their first basketball victory in history over the Eskymos and naturally the St. Joseph rooters found much to be enthusiastic about.

It was an extremely well-behaved crowd, however, and the fans of both teams deserve public approbation for the good manner in which they conducted themselves. Sure, there was an occasional boo when the game officials made decisions in critical phases of the game but the boos were subdued and were drowned out by the applause.

Both the players and the fans showed a spirit of sportsmanship that is good for the game and good for the community.

We hope that the crowd behavior at the Escanaba-St. Joseph game this week can be taken to mean that Escanaba basketball fans are "growing up" and that the lusty booing prevalent so frequently in years past is gone for good.

Food For Thought

A congressional group reports that 8,000,000 families and individuals in the United States have annual incomes of less than $1,000.

When we realize how short a distance $1,000 goes in these days of high prices, the figures leave us little room for complacency about our vaunted high standard of living.

Still, it would be nice to know about how many families and individuals in Russia's 200,000,000 population have yearly incomes of MORE than $1,000. After you get past the members of the Politburo and related officialdom, there probably wouldn't be too many in the charmed circle.

VYING FOR TOURIST DOLLARS

Michigan's tourist business this year, reveals the secretary of the state tourist council, hit an all-time high. Tourist and resort operators knew that from looking at their books. What they probably are more interested in learning is how Michigan fared with respect to other resort states. Comparative figures won't be available for perhaps several months, but recently released figures for last year may afford some clue.

Michigan is estimated to have done a $500,000,000 tourist business in 1948. Topping it were New York, with $1,000,000,000, and Florida and California, with about $700,000,000 apiece. Michigan, therefore, ranked fourth. All things considered, that isn't bad. But can it stay up there? That's the all-important question.

Competition is growing increasingly sharp for tourist dollars. The federal government and the governments of the Marshall plan countries are encouraging Americans to travel abroad. Britain, France and our other friends need American dollars. American tourists are a great potential source for them. The federal tax on foreign travel has been knocked off, but still remains on domestic transportation. Persons looking for a way to make their travel dollars go the farthest will give that point due consideration. They will realize, too, that with devaluation of foreign currency their money will buy more abroad than it will here.

Thus the American tourist-resort business for at least the next year or so faces terrific competition from abroad. This means that many resort states will put on an intensive drive to get all they can of the business that stays home. Florida offers a good example of what to expect. Only in the last year or two has it been advertising itself widely as a summer resort state. This year it spent more than $2,000,000 to get the point across around the country. And in the four summer months this year it did more tourist business than it did in the entire 12 months of 1939.

SANGUINE-SANGUINARY

Little Rock: Since sanguine and sanguinary have a common origin, how do you explain their utterly opposite meanings?—G. B.

Answer: True, both words come from the Latin sanguis, "blood." Sanguine denotes that which is ardent, cheerful, confident. Sanguinary means "bloodthirsty, murderous." It came about thus:

In the old days, the body was supposed to contain four vital humors (humor is the Latin word for liquid; fluid of the body): 1. sanguine (blood); 2. phlegm; 3. choler (yellow bile); and 4. melancholy (black bile).

These humors were supposed to affect a person's disposition and well-being. For example, if blood was proportionately abundant, a person was vigorous, hearty, and cheerful. Thus, sanguine was a "good humor." If phlegm predominated, it made one cold and sluggish, or phlegmatic. Choler was a "bad humor"—it produced a evil, irascible disposition. Also, one with a choleric disposition was almost certain to become a victim of cholera. Melancholy, too, was a "bad humor." Its effect was to depress, to sadden, to make gloomy.

In the course of time, the word humor lost entirely its meaning of "fluid of the body," and took on the psychological meaning of "a mood; a state of mind," as, a cheerful humor (sanguine), an ugly humor (choleric), an apathetic humor (phlegmatic), a fearful humor (melancholy).

But there was need of still another word to designate a bloodthirsty or murderous

French Strike Bodes Trouble

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Paris, France.—The one-day strike called for all of France is like a warning symptom of a deep-seated disease. It is not serious in itself. But if the warning is ignored, then the disease can take a threatening form.

There are skilled observers who believe the one-day demonstration presages major labor upheavals during the coming winter. Large-scale strikes could slow the tempo of recovery, and that is particularly true of coal mining, where the unions and nationalized industry are largely dominated by Communists. But, significantly, the one-day general strike was not initiated by the Communists.

The general strike call was issued by the workers' force, which is made up of anti-Communist unions that left the General Confederation of Labor (C. G. T.) because it was run by Communists. The C. G. T. has merely followed the lead of the "third force" unions.

This means that the one-day demonstration of paralyzing all of France was not political in its initiation. The fact is that its roots are deep in the real grievances of the mass of French workers.

The postwar governments of France have done little or nothing for the workers. Wage levels have remain frozen, and while they have been moved upward under the stabilization agreement they never have kept pace with rising prices. The result is a severe pinch on the working-class families.

At the same time, industrial profits have been relatively high. Wealthy industrialists and financiers have been manifesting all the signs of postwar prosperity, including the export of capital to such "safe" countries as Switzerland, America, Spain and Argentina.

Likewise, the peasant farmer has enjoyed considerable prosperity. This has, in part, been due to government subsidies. These subsidies have enriched the few large farmers as well as maintaining an adequate price level for the typical French peasant with an average holding of 20 acres.

These contrasts have caused much acute discontent. The resentment of workers has been directed as much against the union leaders as against anyone.

In leaderless France the trade unions are failing to hold their membership. That goes for the Communist as well as the workers' force unions. A considerable proportion of the membership of all unions simply is not paying its dues or accepting any discipline from the old and discredited leaders. Communist support has been dropping steadily. The circulation of the chief Communist newspaper, L'Humanite, has fallen from about a half-million to perhaps as low as 200,000. This reflects the indifference to the leadership of the French Communists, who go on parroting the Moscow line.

It may also reflect the doubts stirred by the Communist schism over Marshal Tito. At the same time, of course, fanatical or naive French intellectuals "make face" for Moscow by contributing some incredible bludge to the "golden book" of Marshal Stalin's 70th birthday. But, since the leadership over the "third force" unions has also deteriorated, there is little reason to celebrate the Communist defection. In such a leaderless, anarchic situation almost anything could happen.

One of the dangers today is the growing working-class conviction that the Marshall plan recovery has been at the expense of the wage earners. The belief is that wages are kept frozen at low levels in order to show a rise in productivity at low cost and to send French goods into the export markets.

The administrators of the ECA program are aware of this attitude. They also are aware that Europe cannot balance its export-import budget by maintaining low-wage scales and a low standard of living. The European working class is far too politically conscious for that.

What it comes down to as much as anything else in France is the virtually impotent government. The previous government of Premier Henri Queuille had offered to pay a bonus to the low-paid workers, but the unions insisted that all workers should get it.

The present regime has proposed to increase the minimum wage from $35 a month to $43. In addition, of course, the workers would get free state benefits that make this total seem somewhat less small when put alongside of American wage standards.

The unions also want a return to collective bargaining, and here also, the government is making concessions. The danger however, is that this may be one more case of too little and too late. Major strikes in France this winter could work havoc with European recovery and the present effort to integrate the European economy.

disposition—the exact opposite of sanguine. So, with charming inconsistency, the ancient scholars returned to the Latin word sanguis and brought forth the adjective "sanguinary."

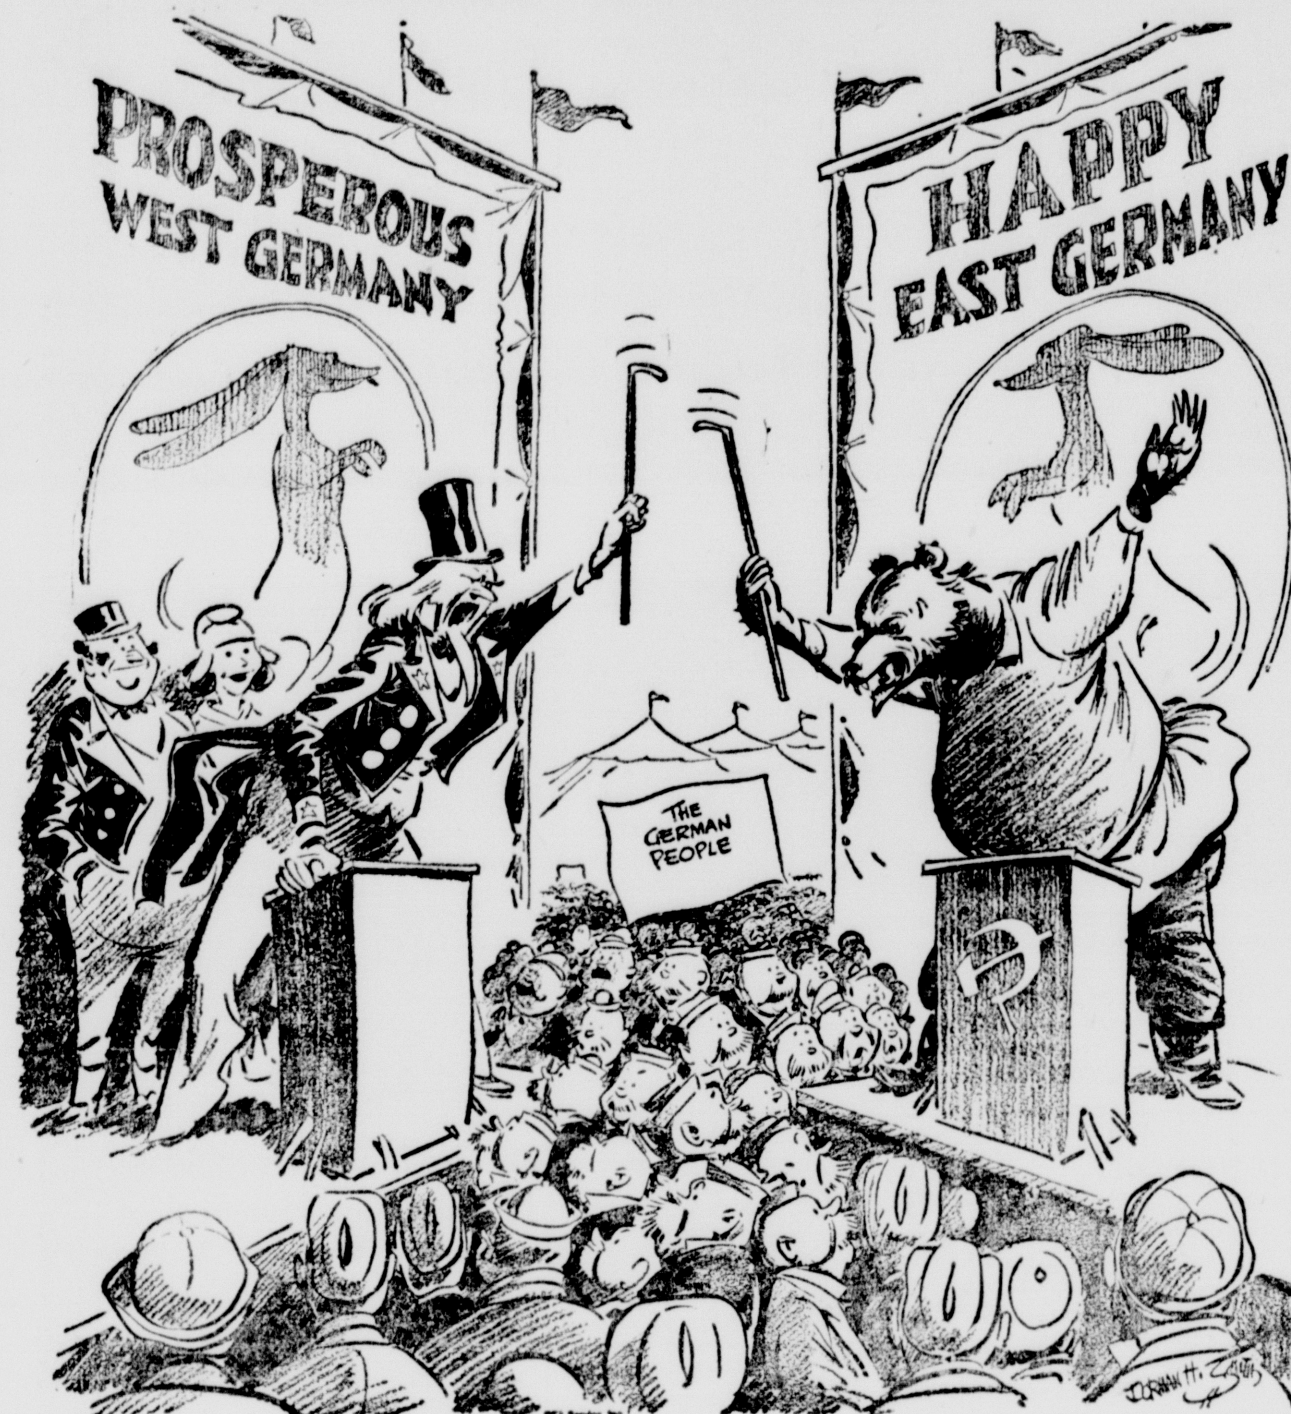

This curious anomaly is but one of many that occur all through English, and which prompt the language student to echo Shakespeare's plaint: "Zounds! I was never so bethumped with words since I first call'd my brother's father dad."

Greatest Show in Europe

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

CHILD CARE—Many meetings are held and there is much discussion in certain circles concerning the problem of child care.

Children, they say, should have the best our country has to offer. In our own community this includes items ranging from surplus apples, free cod liver oil, free immunization against communicable diseases free education including special rooms for the handicapped, and free bus transportation to and from school if this is required.

But there is one phase of child care that is generally overlooked: Housing.

For it is generally conceded that the family with children finds it difficult to obtain housing unless the family has sufficient money to purchase a home of its own.

JUSTICE FOR ALL—One of our Escanaba readers who signs her letter "One Who Believes in Justice for All" makes the following suggestion: "Married couples with children should emigrate to Australia."

Why? Because there the State Housing Trust demands that tenants occupying its homes "shall have at least six children before they can rent and occupy one of the houses on Fifth avenue, Brompton, South Australia."

One Australian community has 110 youngsters in 25 homes, but on Fifth avenue there are 87 children in 12 homes.

THE KINDNESS—"Hurrah for Australia," writes the Escanaba woman.

"How much better and more Christianlike than so many owners of houses and apartments in the good old United States, the best country in the world—that harbors so many landlords and landladies who rent to Adults Only."

"They seem to have forgotten that they too, were once children and had to live somewhere. "My children have grown up and moved away—but I always feel sorry for other families looking for places to rent," concludes "One Who Believes in Justice for All."

ANY TIME—It is interesting to note that the antipathy to children among some landlords continues year in and year out, regardless of business conditions or housing shortages.

Very frankly, they consider children in their houses a poor risk. They do not like children and they do not want children on their properties.

Often the family with a large number of children is unable to pay as high a rental as the childless couple. Sometimes they are able to pay as much or more. Yet even in consideration of higher rentals the landlord clings to his "Adults Only" policy.

The situation places a definite hardship upon the children. They are the ones who must live and grow in the rented house, and they are the ones who are most seriously affected by the inferior housing their parents must sometimes accept because of the antipathy to children held by some landlords.

EXPERIENCE—As we mentioned above, the housing shortage has little to do with Adults Only policy of some landlords.

—Email Rieve, president, CIO Textile Workers Union.

The Point Four program (to aid world's underdeveloped areas) is the answer to communism's five-year plans which demand that the people become slaves of the state.

—Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

When we came to Escanaba (with family) several years before the war it was difficult to find a suitable house to rent—because we had children.

The story was the same from the owners of "nice" houses. Finally we met a kind man who owned a two-story house that the childless couple didn't want because it had five bedrooms and a bath big enough for roller skating parties. We took it.

One of the landlords we had approached told us frankly that "I'll never rent to a family with kids."

A couple weeks later we drove past that place and saw that he had rented it to a couple with two large dogs. The dogs were running happily on the nice lawn, protected from traffic by a new fence built especially for them.

THE OTHER SIDE—Quite without malice toward landlords, we will point out that some of them have adopted their Adults Only policy because of unhappy and expensive experiences with the children of tenants.

Unfortunately, some parents permit their children to misuse a rented house. Junior takes a hatchet to the woodwork and Mama gets mad at the landlord for voicing a protest. In retaliation the landlord asks them to move, and the family does so—without paying the rent.

But in charity toward the children of America, landlords ought well examine their Adults Only policy and their conscience to determine whether they might not, in the future, open their houses and their hearts to the tenant with a family.

Inferior Medicine

Dear Editor:

How much would the proposed scheme for compulsory government health insurance cost the taxpayers of this country?

Many estimates have been made, and most of them have contained a large element of guesswork. As a pattern, however, we can take Britain's experience with her "free" medical care plan. According to Aneurin Bevan, the Minister of Health, the plan is costing Britain more than 50 cents a week a person—over twice the original official estimates. The total cost of the system this year will probably exceed $1,500,000,000.

In an editorial on the subject, E. T. Leach, editor of the Pittsburgh Press, says: "On the same per capita cost, a similar U. S. health plan would cost about $6,000,000,000 a year. But far higher living standards would probably make the bill twice that amount." In other words, at a time when the Federal government is unable to make both ends meet even with a $40,000,000,000 income, compulsory health insurance alone would pile up to $12,000,000,000 a year more on the sagging backs of the taxpayers!

And that would not be all—not by a long shot. Government medicine would levy an enormous cost in a coin other than money. It would—if experience elsewhere means anything at all—lower the standards of medical care. It would be a barrier to research and preventive medicine which, in the long run, can do more than anything else to improve the health of a people. It would create a great new political bureaucracy, with sweeping powers over medical practice. And, sooner or later, it would inevitably end in completely socialized medicine.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—It looks as if President Truman would soon have one of his former assistants whom he didn't particularly like, back in Washington.

—this time in the senate. He is William Benton, former assistant secretary of state, who will probably be the new senator from Connecticut following the retirement of GOP Senator Raymond Baldwin on January 1.

Gov. Chester Bowles has virtually decided to appoint Benton, a Democrat, to Baldwin's seat.

Benton, who had the difficult job of setting up the state department's new propaganda office, pioneered the Voice of America radio program. He also went in for an art exhibit, which was sent to various foreign countries, and it was this which got him in the hair of his chief in the White House.

Truman didn't like modernistic art, and didn't hesitate to say so. In fact, he took the trouble to write Benton a confidential letter describing modern art "as merely the vaporings of half-baked lazy people. . . There is no art at all in connection with the modernists, in my opinion," Truman told his subordinate.

BENTON'S FINAL TRIUMPH
Benton also had a tough time with certain congressmen, especially penny-pinching John Taber of New York, who cut the heart out of his appropriations. It is interesting to note, however, that congress came around to the realization that Benton's propaganda program was one of the most important things the state department was doing. In fact, most of the things Benton crusaded for have now received full recognition.

Despite this, General Marshall, on becoming secretary of state, asked for Benton's resignation, and the tough-talking former advertising executive retired to Connecticut where he kept busy with the Encyclopedia Britannica, which he owns, and Muzak, the company which pipes music into hotels and restaurants all over the United States.

If Governor Bowles carries through his present intention of appointing his close friend to the senate, Benton will now vote on the appropriations of state department officials who once conspired to fire him. However, Benton bears no grudges, and when the Democratic party was having a tough time raising money in 1948, he came through with a contribution for the president who once eased him out of Washington.

AMATEUR DIPLOMATS

Most people have the idea that diplomacy is something to be left to those trained in foreign languages, international problems, and the niceties of the social salons. But 24 Negroes from Howard university have just done a great thing for their country by touring Scandinavia to counteract Paul Robeson's propaganda.

The 24 colored students had been studying dramatics at Howard, and after a clerk from the Norwegian embassy saw their performance, he suggested that they visit Norway. With a little help they made the trip, and started off by presenting Henrik Ibsen's "Wild Duck" right in Ibsen's Norwegian homeland.

Robeson, traveling through Scandinavia a few months before, had told how American Negroes were downtrodden, lynched, and undernourished. Many believed him. Therefore, when the Howard university students arrived, they played to full houses, many in the audience curious to see just what kind of culture could come from the American Negro.

The result was enthusiastic acclaim from Oslo dramatic critics. According to "Morningblade": "The acting was honest and straightforward with an air of sincerity." "Verden's Gang" added: "The visit proved that the 'colored' Howard university has a literary interest and generally cultured student milieu on a plane which any European or other university has reason to envy."

From then on, the Negro students played before sellout crowds. They attracted so much attention, in fact, that they were invited to tour Denmark and Sweden—where they met the same enthusiastic reception. Now they are winding up performances in the American zone of Germany, have been asked to fill engagements in France and Holland.

Though unknown and unappreciated in their own country, these young Negroes have scored a triumph abroad—not merely for their acting but, more important, for their people-to-people diplomacy.

Pribilof Seals Lecture Theme

Ben East Tale Of Islands Thrills

Ben East, outdoor feature writer and outstanding wildlife photographer presented the second film lecture of the Hiawathan Wildlife lecture series on Wednesday evening at the W. W. Oliver auditorium. East's lecture was titled "Alaska's Treasure Islands." It was a film study of the seals, reindeer, blue foxes, sea-bird colonies, wildflowers and the Aleut Indians, with emphasis on the seals.

The Pribilof islands, St. Paul and St. George, and their seal resources were discovered by the Russians in 1786. By 1802, said East, the seal herd was near extinction, and the Russians abandoned killing them for a few years. By 1834, another shortage was apparent, and so only males were killed from then on until the present.

Pelagic killing, now prohibited, was also destructive because in open ocean hunting they had to kill about five seals to get one; the rest were not recovered. In 1911, pelagic killing was prohibited by agreement between Great Britain, Russia, Japan and the United States.

Then the seal population was down to 125,000. All killing was stopped for four years and now the Pribilof herd is back to more than four million.

The United States government now permits an annual take of 100,000 seals under controlled harvest with the Fish and Wildlife Service in charge. This annual seal skin harvest is valued at $3,000,000. When the harvest starts, 1,000 seals are killed each morning on St. Paul and St. George islands.

East showed many interesting and thrilling sequences of seal behavior, amusing courtship between sleek, mild-eyed little cows and the great, roaring bulls, battles between the bulls and the attractive pup seals by the hundreds frolicking on the beach and learning to swim. His pictures also presented many details of the fur harvest.

Competing for interest with the seal story were sequences showing the vast sea-bird colonies on the cliffs of the islands, the beautiful flowers that bloom in the short summer season and the reindeer and arctic foxes. The Aleut inhabitants of the islands appeared throughout.

During changes of film reels, East answered questions from the audience.

The next number in the Hiawathan Wildlife lecture series presented here through the cooperation of the University of Michigan Extension service and the Wolverine Conservation Association will be "Outdoors in Michigan," given by Jack Van Coevering, wildlife editor of the Detroit Free Press. Van Coevering will appear here on Thursday, January 19.

A bake sale and a dance will be held to raise funds to finance the trip for the girls.

Winter Driving Warning Issued

Munising—City police have issued a couple of reminders to winter drivers, children and parents.

The cooperation of parents was asked in preventing accidents involving children by having youngsters ride only on those hills which have been designated for that purpose. They are: First, Hemlock street, Jewel street and Spruce street.

"Stop" signs have been set up at intersections with those streets. Police are also "worried" about children who have resumed the practice of "hooking rides" on cars. They asked the youngsters to stop that practice.

Concert Series To Open Jan. 16

Munising To Hear Bass-Baritone

Munising, Mich.—The dates for the Munising Community concert association series which will be presented at the Mather high school auditorium during the coming season are announced. Membership holders should make special note of them on their calendar of coming events so as to reserve the dates for three evenings of fine musical entertainment.

Oscar Natzka, bass-baritone, will be presented as the first number on Monday, January 16. The 6-foot-2 singer is a New Zealander who made his American debut in the spring of 1948. Until recently he was the leading bass-baritone of London's Covent Garden Opera and has been very successful in concert between opera seasons with a personality as strong and magnetic as his voice. For six years he was in the Canadian navy, from which he emerged a commander, serving on corvettes around Iceland on patrol and convoy duty. Later he was transferred ashore to sing in a musical revue, "Meet the Navy" in which he appeared more than 1,000 times all over England, Allied Europe, and Canada and in the film of the same name.

On Saturday, February 4, a young Canadian artist will give a piano recital. John Knight, whose mother was a concert pianist, has been making public appearances since he was five and at the age of seventeen was chosen by Sir Ernest Macmillan as soloist with the Toronto Symphony in the Grieg Concerto, an auspicious debut which led to other major engagements. His musical career was interrupted by the war when he enlisted in the R. C. A. F. and served three years as a wireless air gunner. Since his return to the concert stage he has not only achieved a reputation in Canada but made his first appearance in New York during the past season with outstanding success.

The series ends on Saturday, Feb. 25 with Mildred Dilling, harpist, who is recognized internationally as one of the outstanding harpists of our time. Born in America, her early musical studies were in this country; later she studied in Europe with Henrietta Renie, the great French harpist. Her frequent New York recitals are among the most delightful on the city's musical calendar and she has appeared in Paris, the British Isles and elsewhere on the continent. To this American artist was given the distinction of being the first solo harpist to broadcast in Ireland, land of the harp, and to give the first harp recital for television for the British Broadcasting Company. Miss Dilling has had the honor of playing seven private engagements at the White House. She recently made her motion picture debut with Artists Films, has appeared on the Kraft Hour with Bing Crosby and, as a teacher of the harp, has the gifted Harpo Marx as her most famous pupil.

Policemen Stabbed And Bitten Outside Sarnia, Ont. Ballroom

Sarnia, Ontario, (AP)—One policeman was stabbed, a second bitten and several others bruised here Sunday as the law quelled a disturbance outside a dance hall.

Four Sarnia youths are held on charges ranging from assaulting a policeman to obstructing police. Inspector Sidney C. Pratt suffered a knife wound in the back, officers said. The other policemen hurt were not identified.

The melee occurred outside the Kenwick Terrace ball room. It involved a crowd of about 250 persons—many of them teen-agers.

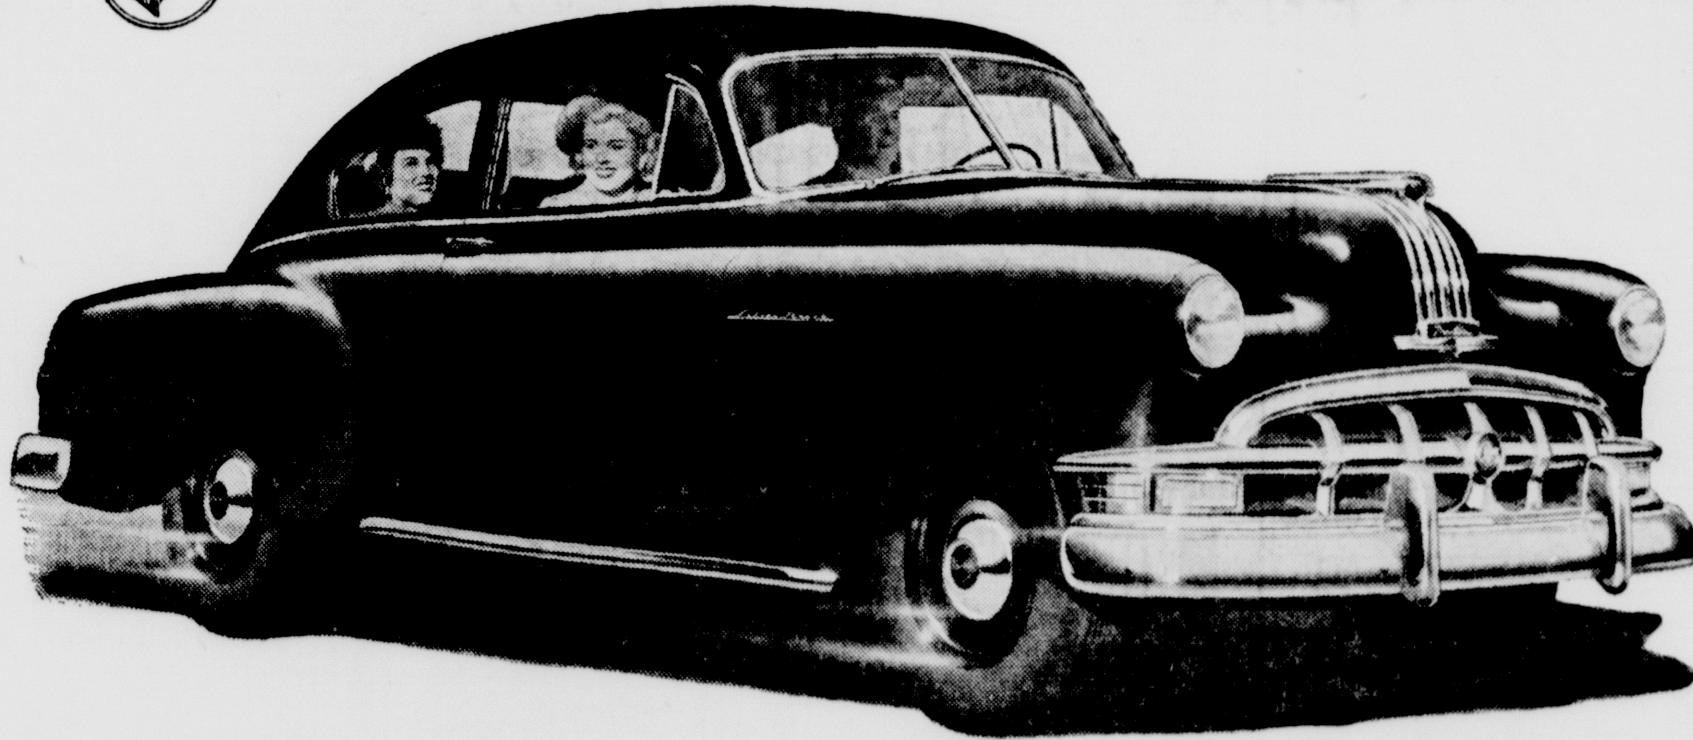

Police said three officers were called to the dance hall to stop a fight between Archie MacDonald, 24, and another man.

When they tried to arrest the pair, two other young men nearby interfered, and the fighting broke out.

Former Convict Strikes It Rich

He Invented Shears To Cut Metal

By ROBERT C. RUARK

Salt Lake City.—Twenty-five years ago a young man named Robert McCoy was thrown into the jug on a charge of armed robbery and willful murder. He was sentenced March 25, 1925, and was given a life sentence.

Some time next month this convicted bank robber and killer steps out a free man. He is also a vice-president of a corporation which bears his name, an outfit capitalized at $100,000. As he walks outside the door he will climb into a spanking new auto—his own—and he will contemplate a comfortable $250,000 of pledged orders before he even begins producing a little gimmick he invented over the long dull years of working for the state.

McCoy is the inventor of a patented shears for cutting metal. A brilliant machinist, as well as bank robber and gunman, he has developed a metal-cutter which will virtually make obsolete the torch cutting of medium metal. McCoy's portable shears, will slash through Sherman tank armor like a razor through cheese. He can take his tiniest shears and chop up an automobile like a little girl snips paper dollies. It all has to do with a new distribution of balance in the tool.

Escaped Twice

While no rose geranium—McCoy escaped twice and was paroled twice, only to violate the parole and return to the jug—he will be surrounded from now on by righteousness.

Among the directors of the McCoy Tool Co. are his ex-warden, Mason Ralph, a tax expert who put the deal together, and Judge W. Douglas Allen of Murray City, who is the president. Adrian Pembroke, former chairman of the State Board of Corrections, also was on the board.

Mr. McCoy has been an unusual prisoner. He supported his mother with his earnings as an inventive genius through the years of his imprisonment. At one time he was reported to have $47,000 on the prison books. Once, when paroled, he was immediately hired by a big mining outfit here. On one occasion, when outside the jailhouse walls on a garage delivery mission, he paused briefly to buy a Cadillac. This enraged his lawyer, who represents the Buick people here, and McCoy rescinded his order.

McCoy's cutting tool can be produced for from $10 to $15 and will be priced at around $50. Since its closest competition costs somewhere near $500, it is easy to understand why the orders are flooding his cell. On bona fide orders, McCoy's 51 per cent of the take should gain him around $100,000 before Christmas.

Began Inventing Early

Mr. McCoy's brilliance as an inventor was not born as he languished in the pen. It is my understanding that he stuck up the bank to get funds to fight an infringement of patent suit. It was regarded as lamentable luck that an innocent bystander got in front of a bullet from the invention of a Mr. Samuel Colt, wielded by Mr. McCoy.

But this brilliance flowered in the jug. Starting with such simple devices as lamps made of French 75 shells, with built-in radios, Mr. McCoy proceeded to dynamics and presently owns four fat patents. Once, when paroled, he crossed a state line on a hurry-up job for the mining firm which employed him, and was re-collected, more in sorrow than in anger, when a burglar's tool was found in his car.

On this occasion Mr. McCoy had nothing to do with a robbery, but he had hobbnobbed with a few cronies who were planning to knock over another crib, and they carelessly had left a tool behind in their old friend's auto. I find something curiously comforting in Mr. McCoy's success story. Only in America, I think, could a convicted robber and killer graduate Cum Laude from the penitentiary. Especially with the warden on his board of directors, his lawyer keeping the books and the pleasant prospect of a million bucks to comfort him in his old age.

If the Russians can top that one, I will go there to live.

Rheumatic fever takes twice as many lives among children as infantile paralysis does.

Wilma LeBrasseur
Is The Bride Of Elroy Zimmerman

Nahma—Bouquets of mums of white and orchid shades decorated the altar of St. Andrew's church at Nahma, Saturday, November 19, when Miss Wilma LeBrasseur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil LeBrasseur, became the bride of Elroy Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmerman. The vows were exchanged before Rev. Charles Reinhart at a 9 o'clock nuptial high mass.

St. Andrew's choir sang the wedding mass and the processional and recessional were played by Mrs. Reginald Hebert.

The bride wore a becoming street length dress of steel blue slipper satin and a winter white velvet hat with matching accessories. Her corsage was red roses and white mums. Her only attendant, Mrs. Clayton LeBrasseur, wore copper satin and green accessories and yellow roses formed her corsage.

Clayton LeBrasseur served as best man.

Mrs. LeBrasseur attended her daughter's wedding in a forest green crepe dress with which she wore brown accessories. Mrs. Zimmerman wore grey crepe with black accessories.

A wedding breakfast for immediate members of the family was served at the bride's home and a reception for relatives was held in the late afternoon.

Two Breakings Are Investigated By Local Police

City police are investigating the breaking and theft of beer from the warehouse of George Nero, which police disclose occurred in the early hours of Monday morning.

Entrance into the building which is the old Soo Line freight house, was made by jimmying a window. A checkup has revealed that about fifty cartons of twelve cans each of Schlitz beer were stolen. No clues as to the identity of the burglars.

The night previous the Jim and Jean grocery was broken into and cigarettes, wine and a ham were stolen. State Police are investigating this case.

Icy Pavement Cause Of Many Motor Accidents

Slippery paving, due to the freshly fallen snow was responsible for a number of motor mishaps in this area the past couple of days, none of which were of a serious nature.

The first one occurred Wednesday morning on Highway U. S. 2 near the Ten Point Cabins when a truck of the Michigan Associated Telephone Companies driving on to the highway from a side road was struck by a car driven by Albin Danielson of Pontiac. Danielson, in trying to slow down his vehicle, lost control of it and it sideswiped the truck. No one was hurt.

Later in the afternoon, a car driven by John Townsend of Ontonagon, struck a slippery place near the Blue Spruce cabins and left the road. No one was hurt and the car was not seriously damaged.

Early in the evening, a car driven by Mrs. Annett Huber, skidded off the highway near the McNally Cabins on Highway U. S. 2, and turned over. Mrs. Grace Abel, who was with her was given first aid treatment at the Shaw hospital, but was able to return home immediately.

Late Wednesday night a car driven by Miss Mildred Johnson of Garden skidded off Highway 2 about two miles west of town. No one was hurt and the damage to the car was not serious.

Mrs. Nelson Passes Away

Resident Of Gulliver Nearly Fifty Years

Mrs. Hannah C. Nelson, 90, wife of the late Uno Nelson, of Gulliver, died at her home in Gulliver Thursday morning following a brief illness.

Mrs. Nelson was born in Sweden on July 25, 1859 and came to America as a young woman. She was a member of the Zion Lutheran church and up to the time of her death was the oldest member of that congregation. She had also been a member of the Manistiquette Order of Maccabees for more than fifty years.

Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. Hulda Nelson, of Gulliver, and Mrs. Minnie Larson, of Manistiquette; four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Kefauver and Jackson Funeral home on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

Thanksgiving day has been proclaimed every year since Abraham Lincoln began the custom.

Improvement At Paper Mill

Idle Time Was Put To Good Use

The long shutdown at the Manistiquette Pulp & Paper company mill, caused by the breakdown of a steam turbine and its replacement by another, was not entirely a period of idleness at the plant, R. G. Hentschell, plant manager, states, in the current issue of the Meadear, the mill publication.

There was plenty of activity about the plant, in spite of the fact that the paper making machine was not operating, and this is very much in evidence by the many improvements to the parking lot, the entrance roadway and the grounds surrounding the mill.

"In keeping with the good housekeeping and general improvement policy, much has been done to further beautify our mill," says Mr. Hentschell.

"Even when the mill is not in operation, there is still a certain amount of daily work required to be done," he adds, "and when this was finished the supervisors donated their overalls, work shirts and heavy shoes, matted shovels and rakes and set to work on improving the looks of our mill."

The first item on the program was the setting up the bumpers in the parking lot. When the setting was completed they were given a coat of aluminum paint. The many rails in the fence along the roadway were turned out of pulpwood sticks on lathes in the shop. These were also painted. A good many loads of sand were hauled and spread to grade down the hill to the tracks. A heavy layer of topsoil came next to form the basis of a good clean lawn. As soon as the grass comes up next spring and the turf becomes firm, flower beds will be laid out and planted.

Evergreens have already been set out adjacent to the parking lot and maples leading along the roadway out to the highway.

The general office also got a going over during the shutdown. All of the old furniture was thoroughly scrubbed, sanded down, and varnished; windows were puttied, cleaned and painted. Old records dating back to "way back when" were put in order and the record storage space put in A-1 shape.

Bethel Baptist Kings Daughters Elect Officers

The Kings Daughters society of the Bethel Baptist church held its annual business meeting at the church parlors on Tuesday evening at which time the following officers for the coming year were chosen: Mrs. Harold Carlson, president; Mrs. Robert Oberg, vice president; Miss Alice Peterson, secretary; Mrs. John Blomquist, vice secretary; Mrs. Clarence Irie, financial secretary; Mrs. Oscar Blomquist, vice financial secretary; Mrs. Harold Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. George Bosanic, assistant treasurer; Mrs. David Westin, pianist; Mrs. Harold Martinson, assistant pianist; Mrs. Leonard Larson, reporter; Mrs. Arthur Allen, assistant reporter; Mrs. Edwin Swanson and Mrs. Arthur Nelson, flower committee.

A program followed the business session with devotions led by Mrs. Henry Brolin and Mrs. Ragnar Carlson. On the program was a reading by Mrs. John Blomquist; a favorite hymn singing in which all present participated; and an inspiring talk on "Thanksgiving and What to Be Thankful For" by Miss Mattie Benson. Benediction was given by Mrs. Harold Martinson.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Henry DeSautle and Miss Anna Scharstrom, at the close of the meeting.

Surgical Cabinet Will Be Memorial To Pioneer Couple

A surgical instrument cabinet will serve as a memorial to the late Judge and Mrs. John Hruska at the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital, it has been announced.

Judge and Mrs. Hruska had been residents of Thompson and Manistiquette since pioneer days and relatives and friends, wishing to honor their memory, contributed to this memorial.

The fund was started three years ago at the time Judge Hruska passed away and was considerably increased the past week following the death of his wife.

At a social function, the U. S. President enters the room ahead of his wife.

Home Economics Sewing Machine Lessons Planned

Schoolcraft County Home Economics club members will hold sewing machine schools next week.

The clubs at Woods, Blaney, Germfask, Seney, and Grand Marais will meet at the Germfask Township hall on Wednesday, November 30, and the clubs in the west end of the county will meet at the Manistiquette Township Hall, Thursday, December 1. Both meetings will start at 10:00 a. m.

Miss Opal Roberson, assistant state home demonstration leader from Marquette, will conduct the workshops in which sewing machines will be taken apart, cleaned, reassembled, and adjusted to sew properly.

Besides cleaning and adjusting machines, instruction will be given on keeping machines in good condition by proper care and oiling.

Community Chest Drive Planned

Scouting And Youth Center Beneficiaries

Funds with which to carry on Boy and Girl Scout activities and maintain the Manistiquette Youth Center for the coming year will be the sole beneficiaries included in the current Community Chest drive soon to be launched. A quota of $5,000 has been set as the objective.

Donald MacLean, representing the veterans' organizations, has been named general chairman of the drive, and hopes to have these organizations, along with the Lion and Rotary clubs, and the PTAs of the city cooperating. Nothing official, however, has as yet been done by way of drive organization.

The Boy and Girl Scout organizations, which have functioned very successfully in the past year are entirely dependent upon help of this sort. The youth center, gets some financial assistance but not enough to meet all its expenses. At present it has no funds with which to operate and it will not be opened up until the necessary funds are available.

At a meeting, called for next Monday evening, plans for the drive are expected to be completed.

Club Asks Bid On Concession

Ski Group Planning Member Drive

Bids on the clubhouse concession for the impending ski season are being received by the Gladstone ski club until 5 o'clock on Saturday, Dec. 3.

Following the deadline, the various proposals received will be studied by officers of the club and the most advantageous offer probably will be accepted.

The concession idea was in use last season, supplanting the committee system which had been in vogue since organization of the ski club.

It was inaugurated because it had become increasingly difficult to get club members to handle the work on a voluntary, non-paying basis.

A member drive will be undertaken in the near future and erection of the ski tows is the next item on the work budget.

College Football Season Grinds To Climax Tomorrow With Bowl Bids Hanging In Balance

New York, Nov. 25 (AP)—The college football season reaches a climax tomorrow with bowl bids and the violent Army-Navy struggle sharing top billing.

Some of the excitement died down yesterday after Cornell nipped Pennsylvania, 29-21, for a second straight Ivy league title. Maryland, College of Pacific and Texas boosted their chances of post-season invitations with convincing holiday victories.

Tonight's schedule calls for an important Kentucky-Miami game which might determine Santa Clara's opponent in Miami's Orange Bowl Jan. 2.

But Saturday is the big one for the bowl-minded. It also is the big one for the phone company. Telephones will buzz in athletic offices across the land as anxious promoters page the available few who still remain acceptable and willing.

Oklahoma probably is the prize bowl catch—the only member of the "Big Four" atop the football rankings which still can be had.

California, No. 2 behind Notre Dame in the latest Associated Press poll, already is signed for a Rose Bowl date with Ohio State. Both have finished their regular season.

Notre Dame, which seeks to stretch its unbeaten string to 37 games against Southern California tomorrow, is not interested in bowl games. The Irish still must play Southern Methodist Dec. 3.

Army, of course, will not listen to bowl bids after its traditional finale with Navy. The unbeaten and untied Cadets, No. 4 in the nation, wind it up before some 102,000 fans at Philadelphia tomorrow.

The Sooners of Oklahoma are heavy favorites to thump their neighbor rivals, Oklahoma Aggies, and march on to a bowl date. New Orleans and the Sugar Bowl is their likely destination with the Cotton Bowl a possibility.

Rice and Baylor will fight it out for the right to be Southwest Conference champs and Cotton Bowl host. Rice is No. 7 and Baylor No. 9 in the AP poll.

Tulane, eager for a New Year's assignment in the Sugar Bowl, may make the grade if it gets past Louisiana State in a rugged contest that should be one of the day's best.

Virginia, dumped from the perfect record ranks by Tulane last

Williams Named Most Valuable In American Loop

New York, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox may have failed to win the American league pennant but they possess the circuit's most valuable player in Ted Williams.

The brilliant batting star, whose team lost the flag to the New York Yankees on the final day of the season, gained some measure of revenge when he defeated the world champions' Phil Rizzuto and Joe Page for the coveted prize.

Williams' selection by a committee of 24 members of the Baseball Writers' Association, three from each city, was doubly significant since it marked the first time in six years that such an honor was bestowed upon a member of a non-pennant winning club.

Detroit's Hal Newhouser, back in 1944, was the last player to accomplish it. Only two others, Charley Gehring and Jimmy Fox, achieved that feat since the writers' took over the voting in 1931.

It was the second time that Williams has won. The tall, slender flycatcher also won in 1946 and finished second in '42 and '47, losing by one vote to Joe DiMaggio in the latter year. Lou Boudreau, Cleveland's playing manager, won last year.

Williams, the 31-year-old native of San Diego, paced the league in home runs, runs batted in, runs scored, doubles and total bases. But lost the unofficial batting title to Detroit's George Kell on the final day. He was named on all 24 ballots.

Felton Hoping For Nice, Quiet Fight With Virgo Tonight

Detroit, Nov. 25 (AP)—Welterweight Lester Felton was hoping today that he would have a nice quiet fight with Ross Virgo tonight.

The Detroit Negro and Virgo, a highly-regarded young Rochester, N. Y., scrapper, are booked to go 10 rounds at Olympia.

Felton's last two matches here touched off verbal battles that lasted long after the last punch of the fights had been thrown.

The first came in October against Kid Gavilan of Cuba. Felton got an upset decision in that one. It touched off an inquiry by state and city officials into rumors that the fight had been fixed.

Some phases of the investigation still are underway.

Felton became a storm center again this month when he had to settle for a draw with Tony Pelone of New York. Most observers thought Felton had won that one and the State Boxing Commission probed official scoring of the fight.

Felton's handlers hope for a clean-cut victory over Virgo tonight as proof that the Detroit fighter deserves recognition as a welterweight contender.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

Milwaukee—Bob Sandberg, 135, Rockford, Ill., stopped Juste Fontaine, 127½, Milwaukee, 2.

Brooklyn (Broadway Arena)—Red Davis, 135, Brooklyn, stopped Aaron Jorgins, 128, New York, 6.

Vancouver, B. C.—Stan Almon, 118, Vancouver, outpointed Jesse Fonseca, 126, El Paso, Tex., 10.

Gladstone Opens With 56-37 Win Over Bark River

Gladstone, Nov. 25—The Broncos of Bark River-Harris high school were unable to cope successfully with the height advantage of the Gladstone Braves and the Braves, paced by lanky Phil Creten, who scored 21 points, won 56-37.

Creten was pushed for scoring honors by Dale Nault, Bronco guard, who had a total of 18 points on seven field goals and four free throws while Larry LaPlant, Brave forward, had 16 points garnered on seven buckets and a couple of charity tosses.

LaPlant started out like a house afire, getting five field goals and a free throw in the first quarter to score 11 of his team's 15 points in this period. Creten tied this feat in the final period.

The Broncos had loads of scoring chances in the first half of the game but were unable to sink their shots consistently.

The Braves made it a double victory when Coach Don Pfoten-hauer's reserve quintet trimmed the Bark River-Harris five, 23 to 18.

Junior basketball is on the upgrade in Escanaba with approximately 90 boys turning out every Saturday at the junior high gym for practice.

Boys in the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades are eligible to play. Boys attending St. Ann's and St. Joseph's school are invited to turn out for league play.

The boys are instructed in all phases of basketball. Fundamentals are stressed, such as how to pass, dribble the ball, how to shoot, various shots and how to execute them. Team work is also emphasized along with fair play, and sportsmanship.

Teams are now being organized and league play will swing into action in about two weeks.

A group picture will be taken at 10 tomorrow morning at the junior high gym, including the afternoon players.

The league is under the direction of Art Petersen of the recreation department.

PLAN YULE DINNER

Escanaba high school bowlers will meet at the Sherman hotel at 7:30 this evening to make plans for their Christmas dinner. Bowling will start at 10:45 every Saturday morning.

Looks Like Eagles, Rams, But Bears Have A Chance

New York, Nov. 25 (AP)—The lineup was set today for the championship playoffs in the All-America Conference but over in the National Football league the Chicago Bears kept the situation in a state of uncertainty.

It looks like the Philadelphia Eagles and Los Angeles Rams for the title game in the National but the Bears are still in there pitching—mathematically.

They could slip into the Western division title by winning their next two games against Pittsburgh and the Chicago Rams while the Rams were dropping two of their last three with the New York Bulldogs, Chicago Cards and Washington.

The Rams aren't calculated to be that cooperative, however. The Californians should whip the hapless Bulldogs easily and at least split the other two.

The Bears kept their title hopes alive by bowling over the Detroit Lions in Detroit yesterday 26-7.

The game shared the turkey day professional spotlight with two engagements in the All-America Conference that plunked the idle Buffalo Bills squarely into the post-season scrambling.

The Champion Cleveland Browns edged out the Chicago Hornets 6-6, on the kick of Chicago's fullback while the New

Middies Hopeful As Army, Navy Clash For The 50th Time

Philadelphia, Nov. 25 (AP)—Army, boasting an undefeated string of 19 straight, and an erratic Navy eleven meet on the gridiron for the 50th time tomorrow in a game for which past performances can be tossed down the hatch.

Earl Blak's Black Knights from West Point haven't bowed since Notre Dame's 27-7 romp in 1947.

They are favored to keep that record intact in Philadelphia's huge Municipal Stadium where some 102,000 other football fans will be on hand for the 1:30 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, kickoff.

They Can Do It

But backers of the Middies delight in recalling that the Cadets were even stronger favorites in 1946 when Glen Davis and Doc Blanchard led the West Point 21-18 but the Navy was knocking at the victory door when time ran out. Then a year ago, the Middies battled the West Pointers to a 21-21 deadlock. That tie and a 7-7 stalemate with Pennsylvania in 1947 are the only black spots on Army's string of triumphs.

Comparative Figures

For those who like to compare figures here's a few that establish the Army as the outstanding choice. The Cadets have rolled up 316 points and held the opposition to 69 in taking eight games this fall. The Middies, winning three, losing four and tying one, have been outscored 200 to 151.

Take a glance at common foes. Army beat Columbia 63-6. Navy downed the Lions 34-0. Army just squeezed through a 14-13 victory over Pennsylvania while Navy bowed to the Red and Blue 28-7.

City Cage League Opens December 1

The Escanaba City Basketball league will swing into action Thursday evening, Dec. 1, with eight teams already entered in class B and four in class A. The schedule will be drawn up tonight.

Tonight is the deadline.

This year the city basketball league will have three nights at the junior high gym. Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. There will be two rounds of play with each team playing twice weekly. Three games will be played Monday and Tuesday evenings, starting promptly at 6:45. Thursday night games will start at 6:30 with four games being played.

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Gladstone hockey fans and the sporting public in general owe a vote of thanks to Gordon Haga for organizing the Gladstone Indians and keeping them a going concern for, lo, these many years.

It is largely through his efforts, with able assistance from the Lake brothers, John, Walter and Robert, Fritz Pepin, Ed O'Leary and a few others, that Gladstone has, year after year, had a formidable entry in U. P. amateur hockey play.

It hasn't been easy. The players have had to do all the organizational work, procure necessary equipment, talk up the game, sell tickets and then go out and play the game.

When 700, then 800 and finally 1,100 people turned out to see the Gladstone-Escanaba hockey games last winter, it was evident Gladstone had hundreds of loyal hockey fans.

Among those hundreds there must be at least a few who could form some sort of a promotional hockey committee to relieve players of some of the burdens, to promote junior hockey and procure talent from throughout the Gladstone area. There is no hockey clique in Gladstone. These fellows just want to keep it going, and anyone and everyone is more than welcome to lend a hand.

Any organization like the Escanaba Hawks or the Gladstone Indians needs a committee of non-playing interested persons willing to do their part. The players would welcome such help.

Haga has resigned as manager of the Gladstone Indians and has been succeeded by John Lake, but he will continue to play. He is stepping aside because he's been carrying the managerial load for years, and it's time someone else took over.

With Johnny Lake at the helm, it would be an ideal time for a committee of Gladstone businessmen to organize for the promotion of hockey. Lefty Lake has been named transportation chairman, Bob Lake ticket sales chairman and Ed O'Leary publicity chairman.

You see, they're all players! How about some non-players getting behind the Indians?

Off the cuff: Both Escanaba high and St. Joseph's play their next games Friday night, December 2. . . . Esby will be host to a potent Marquette quintet. . . . And St. Joe will go to Gladstone to meet an equally potent Brave team. . . . St. Joe beat Bark River, 39-36. . . . Gladstone beat Bark River, 56-37. . . . The Trojans have work cut out for them. . . . So do the Eskies. . . . This is supposed to be Marquette's big basketball year.

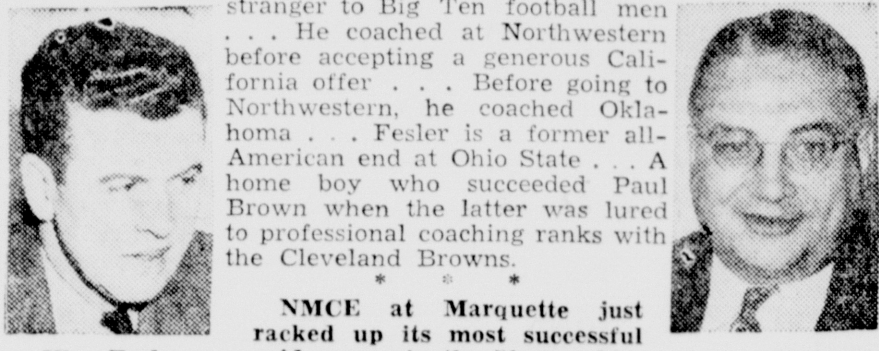

Opposing Rose Bowl coaches this season will be Wes Fesler of Ohio State and Lynn Waldorf of California. . . . Waldorf is no stranger to Big Ten football men. . . . He coached at Northwestern before accepting a generous California offer. . . . Before going to Northwestern, he coached Oklahoma. . . . Fesler is a former all-American end at Ohio State. . . . A home boy who succeeded Paul Brown when the latter was lured to professional coaching ranks with the Cleveland Browns.

NMCE at Marquette just racked up its most successful grid season in the 50-year history of the institution. . . . Lynn Waldorf, Ohio State, is going after the UPIAC basketball championship. . . . He has five senior letter winners to help him out. . . . Four are from Newberry—namely Sam Minard, Burt Gustafson, Cliff Puckette and Bill Zagelmier—and the fifth is Tom Kirby, Marquette. . . . Other returning lettermen include Jack "Pappy" Schils, of Escanaba.

We just had a letter from one of our Finnish readers in Rock who wants us to start spelling Swami S-U-O-M-I. . . . We have Finnish friends here, in Rock and many in Marquette county, but there is no truth to the rumor that Suomi college in Hancock is considering giving Swami an honorary degree in metaphysics.

Prepare for a deluge of all-American teams. . . . Here is Collier's all-midwest eleven picked by its all-America board of coaches: Leon Hart, Notre Dame, and Bob Wilson, Wisconsin, ends; Leo Nomellini, Minnesota, and Alvin Wistert, Michigan, tackles; Don Mason and Ed Bagdon, both Michigan State, guards; Clayton Tomemaker, Minnesota, center; Bob Williams, Notre Dame, quarterback; Chuck Ortmann, Michigan, and Lynn Chandonis, Mich. State, halfbacks, and Emil Sitko, Notre Dame. . . . How would you like to see this team play an all-East, all-South, all-Southwest or all-West team? . . . There'd be a lot of shekels riding on the Midwest.

Wes Fesler, Ohio State, and Lynn Waldorf, California, are featured in this section. Fesler is a former all-American end at Ohio State, and Waldorf is a home boy who succeeded Paul Brown when the latter was lured to professional coaching ranks with the Cleveland Browns.

Canadiens Take Second In NHL

(By The Associated Press)

The Montreal Canadiens stepped up today to challenge high-flying Detroit in the race for National Hockey League honors. No games are scheduled tonight.

Faced by Maurice Richard, who scored one goal and made two assists, the Canadiens downed the Toronto Maple Leafs, 5-3, to take over second place in the standings. The Maple Leafs, Stanley Cup champions, fell to third.

The Detroit Red Wings, however, maintained a nine-point advantage by playing the Chicago Black Hawks to a 3-3 draw.

The Canadiens pushed in two goals in the final period to win a rough and tumble fray from their Canadian rivals before 13,905 at Montreal.

Normie Dussault and Richard were credited with the last period clincher shots. Glen Harmon also scored, the first defenseman to score for Montreal this season. Leo Gravelle and Billy Reay tallied the others.

Detroit preserved its ten-game unbeaten string by gaining the 3-3 tie with Chicago before 15,402 Chicago fans.

The Red Wings piled up all their counters in the second period and appeared headed for an easy victory. Then the Hawks struck for three goals in the last period, all in the space of three minutes, to get the deadlock.

FLINT SPLIT

Flint, Nov. 25 (AP)—Flint Northern high school beat Flint Central 13-0 yesterday to split with it the Saginaw Valley football title. It was a repeat of last year's season climax when both teams also divided the championship. In fact, no other team in the conference has had even a piece of the title since 1944.

Wow! 125-123 Basketball Game; 5 Extra Periods

New York, Nov. 25 (AP)—How's this for a basketball game? Five extra periods. A final score of 125-123. A total of 123 fouls.

It happened last night at Syracuse in the National Basketball Association where the Syracuse Nationals finally downed the Anderson Packers after nearly four hours of exhaustive effort.

You could hardly shake a drum stick at the new NBA records. All but one of the Packers were charged with the legal limit of six fouls.

Minneapolis' high scoring mark of 121 last Sunday was wiped out. The league records for scoring by two teams was topped.

It was 76-76 at the end of regulation time. Then, in order, it was knotted at 83, 87, 95 and 107 before they finally broke it up.

Rapid River Tips Perkins

Losers Lose Lead In 4th Quarter

Perkins, Nov. 25—Losing their star center, D. Depuydt, via the personal foul route, Perkins lost a lead in the fourth quarter it had held the entire game to that point and bowed to the defending champion Rapid River quintet, 34-30, in a Central U. P. league game played here Wednesday night.

With Depuydt plunking them in consistently and playing a bangup game on defense, Perkins held a 9-6 lead at the quarter, 17-14 margin at the half and was still in front by 29-23 going into the final quarter. But when Depuydt was assessed his fifth personal, it was a blow from which Perkins never recovered, as the Rapids went on to win.

Perkins scored only one free throw the entire fourth quarter.

Depuydt was top scorer with 16 points. Lawrence Nelson, Rapid River, rang up 13. K. Depuydt of Perkins hit seven and Don Nelson of the Rapids rang up eight.

In the preliminary, Rapid River Bees trimmed Perkins Bees 34-13.

Summary:

Team	FG	F	FT	PF

RAPID RIVER	10	20	10	15

Totals: 20 FG, 40 F, 20 FT, 30 PF.

Michigan's running game will be built around the lethal threesome of Don Dufex, Kocesi and Ortmann, with Bill Putich passing and calling plays from the quarterback slot.

With reserves of the caliber of Don Peterson, Ralph Straffon and two top freshmen, Michigan will have plenty of backfield running strength. None of the freshmen is any better than Roger Zatroff or Ted Topor, a pair of 200-pound fullback prospects who are sure to fit somewhere into the Wolverine line.

Defensively, it's another story. Somewhere in the ranks of holdovers and freshmen Oosterbaan must find someone to step into the man-sized shoes of Dick Kempthorn, Canton, O., linebacker who became the symbol of Michigan's defensive prowess.

Zatroff, Topor and Emil Morlock, husky center prospect from Grand Rapids, all show strong inclination for that type of work. All are outstanding prospects.

15,000 See Packer Intra-Squad Game; $50,000 In Sight

Green Bay, Wis., Nov. 25 (AP)—The Green Bay Packers of the National Football League staged a combination intra-squad exhibition and reunion for former Packers stars yesterday. A crowd of 15,000 attended despite cold and snow.

The Veterans' team, quarterbacked by Jug Girard, won the squad game 35-31 from the new comers, handled by Stan Heath.

Green Bay businessmen staged the event, hoping to raise $50,000 for the team. Committee officials said $40,000 of tickets were sold before game time and it was expected the goal would be reached when all returns are in today.
